Programs

The annual picnic and art show is Monday April 3 with judging beginning at 10:45 am. Volunteers will help set up the tables and food. The board will continue to solicit a program chairperson for next year to replace Jane Lawson. After several years devoted to providing quality programs for TSAA Jane Lawson will step down.

Sunshine:

No report.

Venues:

No report

Shows & Special Events:

Heather Risley reported that the April Paint & Photo event planning is on going and a lot of her work is raising financial support. The registration will be at the Bayou Café this year due to several restrictions and requirements imposed by Leepa Ratner Museum of Art. She will submit a grant request for the Boys& Girls club art programs. She continues to communicate with the city regarding plans for art studios.

New Business:

The Art on the Bayou event will begin with registration and set up on Friday April 6. Details on the credit card payment process will be worked out and communicated to members.

Old Business:

Patsy will coordinate collation of pictures for the 2018 calendar. Members will be notified that they can bring pictures for the calendar to the next meeting and Patsy will photograph them.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 2:27 pm.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Bess King
