President's Message by Yvonne James

Thank you so very much to Sherry Orr, our fearless event coordinator, and all the volunteers that made the Holiday Show a huge success. The participants are all to be congratulated on the caliber of the entries. Truly a remarkable show. The January program will be a pastel demonstration by Kathy Detrano followed by a workshop on January 19th.

Best of Show:
"Sunset Over Salt Pond"
by Arlene Richardson (Oil)

Superbly done in all aspects - wonderful use of color - the nuance is uncompromised by the landscape.

What a great show! Thank you so much to the many volunteers who worked long hours putting the show together. Your work is beautiful and thought provoking.

January 8th is a date to remember! That is the day we pick up our work and take down the decorations between 10:00 and 12:00.

Next year's show has been scheduled for November 26th.

2018 will bring lots of opportunities!

January 8th is also our first meeting of the year. Kathy Detrano will be demonstrating pastels.

January 19th is Kathy Detrano's workshop. Sign up is at the front desk at the Community Center. The cost is $25.00.

Mark your calendar for these dates.

March 21st is a Lunch and Learn with Lyn Whitelaw. He will be sharing his knowledge of George Inness. Lunch will be provided by Delectables for $20.00.

The Plein Air Event will be April 16-27th. Heather Risley is chair of this event and will be sharing more information.. Sherry Orr Ribbons and Awards presented by Mayor Chris Alahouzos, Diane Wood, and Sherry Orr.
