President's Message by Trish Gregory

Dear Friends,

When I received Patsy's message yesterday that she needed news for the November newsletter, my first thought was "didn't we just do this last week?" I asked Patsy, and she said that she felt the same way. Where did this month go?

Our November meeting is coming up very soon, and it should be a good one, with a demonstration of Raquel Egosi's mixed media magic. She will be holding a workshop on November 8th, which, according to Sherry Orr, should be a lot of fun. At the November meeting we will also be voting on the recommended by-laws changes that Sue McCubbin talked about at our last meeting. You should have received a copy of these in your email soon after the October meeting.

Our "Artist of the Month" competition is always interesting, and I hope we'll have a good representation at the meeting. Unfortunately, we didn't have enough entries at our October meeting, so in November we will be accepting both acrylics and oils. BE SURE TO TURN IN YOUR ARTWORK TO KATHY DETRANO BEFORE 1:15. It is very important to respect the deadline, as members will need time to vote before the meeting begins at 1:30.

Another thing we will need to keep in mind for this November 4 meeting is that we must vacate the meeting room before 3:30. The center has another meeting booked at 3:45 and the staff needs the time to re-set the room before that meeting.

Talking again about the swift passage of time, it's just a little over a month before our largest show in December. We were not able to hold this month-long show last year because of the renovations to the Cultural Center. Again this year, we will not be able to hold the show at the center, but we are fortunate to partner with the Friends of Brooker Creek and hold the show in their lovely auditorium. Here is the schedule for the December Show:

Thursday, December 5: 9:30 -12:00 - Register art at Brooker Creek's auditorium. Please be sure to complete the registration forms before you come.

1:00 - 3:30 - hang artwork

9:30 - finished - decorate tree

Friday, December 6: 10:00 - Judging of artwork

Sunday, December 8: 1:00 - 3:00 - Reception and Awards. Members, please bring finger food to share. Sherry Orr is in charge of the food, so please let her know if you can help with this.

Sunday, December 29: 1:00 - 3:30 - Take down/pick up artwork.

We will need volunteers to gallery-sit on December 14&15; 21&22; and the 28th. Sign up sheets will be on the table at the November 4 meeting. If you cannot attend the meeting and would like to help please email me at peg3400@gmail.com and let me know if you can help and in what capacity. If you can gallery-sit, please let me know the dates.

"It takes a Village" to put on these shows (including the Art on the Bayou in March), and your help is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. I'm looking forward to seeing everyone at the November 4 meeting. Be sure to arrive by or before 1:15 if you are participating in the Artist of the Month show.

Jack-o-Lanterns, Funny Costumes, Haunted Houses!!!! Sherry Orr

What joy these colorful displays bring to our artists' visions!

November will be the beginning of our demonstrations and shows;

Raquel Egposi is sharing her multi-media art. She will do a demonstration on November 4th and a workshop on November 8th. Raquel uses a variety of materials to create her art. The workshop is $25.00. Sign up in the Community Center to learn from this award winning artist.

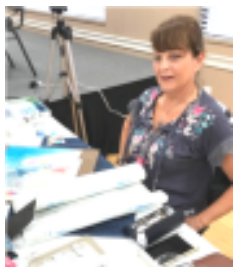

Right now we have Trish Gregory who will do a demonstration of enhanced photography. Lynn Pierson is doing a part two of her cold wax process. Others have started to step forward.

December is our Winter Show at Brooker Creek. We will decorate and hang the show on December 5th. The reception will be Sunday, December 8th. Please bring an appetizer to share.

January will be our trip to St. Petersburg to see the Raymond James Western Art Museum. We will have a registration form at the November meeting.

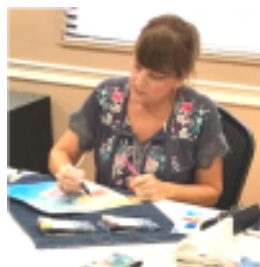

We have met to talk about the Plein Air Event. It is coming together. I look forward to each of you participating. I will need your registration by early December. We have a lot of fun things planned!

October Demonstration

Katheryn Marks did the October demonstration for TSAA. She showed us an interesting method of using water colors and ink.

Artist of the Month was not held in October because we didn't have enough entries. November will be Oil, Acrylic, and 3 Dimensional Art. Please bring your art to the meeting by 1:15 for judging.

Tarpon Art Guild is offering grid space to approved artists. The grids are 7 feet high by 2 feet wide and they are asking $50 for each side. They are asking for a 2 month commitment with a one week notice if not renewing. They will also take 25% of sales. If interested bring some of your art by the Gallery for approval.

Recently Lee Albion won a prize in the Tallahassee watercolor show. The prize was $100 worth of merchandise and since she is trying to get rid of all her art supplies, she can't use it. She is willing to sell it (watercolors or pastels) to someone for $80.00. Call Lee at 727-934-0973 if you are interested.
