

President Heather Riskey called the meeting to order at 1:30PM.

Secretary Report on Bulletin Board

Jane Lawson spoke on Programs, as Treasurer prepared her report.

Today, Jim Throne will demo Portraits in acrylic. We will have workshop on Thursday, October 11. at Crystal Beach.

November: Taylor Ikin will demo watercolor on yupo, There will be a workshop the following Friday, November 9 at Crystal Beach.

Pleinair is Friday October 12, 9:30am at Al Anderson Park in Tarpon Springs, and every Friday for the rest of October. Jane promised to come up with something new for November.

Treasurer's Report: Patsy Renz reported she has taken in $75.00 in Membership Dues today. We are 152 members. Her report is attached to Secretary's. We have a balance of $2,892.41 in Bank.

Newsletter information is due by October 19.

Venues: Sharon Chandler no report.

Kathy Rabold: no report

Trish Gregory said Library in Tarpon Springs good.

Yiota Theofanus said she has opening At Helen Ellis Hospital for November 13.

Heather Riskey said Jane Lawson sold a painting at The Performing Arts Center. November and December are taken care of.

Heather spoke of Artist Market at Leepa Ratner Center on October 13 and 14.

"Paint and Photo": Heather asked for volunteers. She passed an article in the PleinAir Magazine about Tarpon Springs Art. She also spoke about "Quick Draw", and explained what it was about. Heather spoke of letter from Marilyn Martsolf's relations, and said a reply had been sent.

Heather introduced Bev Heller, President of West Pasco Artist Guild, who spoke about the upcoming "Eco-Fest" in November on the 9th, 10th and 11th.

Heather was asked about a Calendar for this Season, and her answer was not this year.

Nancy Caposey was awarded "Artist of the Month" for her mixed Media piece. Nancy explained how she completed her painting.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:50 to prepare for our Demo.

Respectfully submitted by Ann Clark, Secretary.