

TSAA General Meeting

Community Center

November 7, 2022

Trish Gregory welcomed everyone at 1:00.

The Secretary's Report will be given to Patsy to be placed on the WEB.

Martha Hickey, Treasurer reported that the current bank balance is $5671.39.

Patsy Renz reported that we have 60 members. The newsletter has been sent to members.

Peggy McCardle introduced Kathryn Marks, who is demonstrating.

Peggy is putting together a team to sell ads for the Paint and Photo Event.

Sherry Orr put a detailed report in the Newsletter for the Winter Show,

Lynn Kopala, Sunshine will send cheery greetings to anyone needing a smile.

Sign up to bring refreshments to the General Meetings.

Venues:

There will be a Sue Thomas Show and Sale at the Chamber from December 27-March 27th. This will be followed by a Carole Loiacono show.

Lynn Kopala is managing the Hampton Inn, Valley Bank, and the Performing Arts Center.

Bess King will be trading out the show at the Library in February.

TSAA will need a new slate of officers in February.

AOTM will switch to "bring a favorite picture to share".

Congratulations to Martha Hickey for her Pumpkin photograph!

Following a brief break, Kathryn Marks gave a demonstration on her unique water colors.

Sherry Orr, Secretary